

St George's Retreat

Client: St Georges Retreat

To meet with conservation needs a production of a bat house enabled the bats to be rehoused prior to the demolition of St George's Nursing Home.

This building was filled using various natural materials to produce different environmental habitats for the bats.

All joinery was produced by RB in the joinery workshop.